

CHRISTIAN MONTESSORI SCHOOL PRESENTS
TREVOR EISSLER
AUTHOR & MONTESSORI PARENT

Thursday, February 11, 2010 from 6:00 to 7:00 pm.

If you are the parent of a young child, you must join us for an eye-opening presentation by a special guest speaker:
Author and Montessori parent, Trevor Eissler

Trevor Eissler, jet pilot, flight instructor and author of Montessori Madness! admits that he never had much interest in children, let alone educational philosophies, until he became a father. He writes, "When I eventually had kids of my own, my priorities suddenly changed. My children's growth and development continues to fascinate me, as all parents will understand. We all look for ways to improve our children's lives and to better support their development. When we find those ways, we must act."

Using his own experiences in traditional education, he very clearly and simply outlines why Montessori is "education for life." Montessori Madness asks parents to take a look - one thirty-minute observation - at a Montessori school. Your picture of what education should look like will never be the same.

About the Author:

Trevor Eissler, father of three Montessori students, is a pilot and flight instructor. He has trained hundreds of pilots over fifteen years. He is an author, a juggler, a unicyclist, a Toastmaster, a pianist, a triathlete, and a husband. He wants to be a Montessori student when he grows up.
